From The Editor's Desk -

Academic session 2019 – 20 commenced from 1st April and in a blink of the eye it was time for pre midterm exams. Students worked hard and came out with flying colours. The thought that keeps students motivated for the scorching hot month of April is the new class, friends and books. This year they had one extra attraction in the form of SUMMER CAMP where they knew they will get to spend time with friends doing fun creative activities. The month got over and it was time to say bye bye and stay away from blazing sun. The school will be missing its bundle of joys till they come back in July. Come back, we all at school will be waiting with many more milestones to achieve and to set new benchmarks for others to follow.

The Magic With Mud Activity was organized in the pre primary premises for Classes Nursery to Sr. Kg. to help children connect directly with the amazing earth beneath us. The main attraction of the activity was a potter who was all set with his Potter's Wheel and clay to give students enthralling experience of creating different types of earthen pots with the help of clay.

The excitement could be seen on the faces of little ones, as they love to touch mud and get messy. Children had fun creating pots and diyas of different shapes and sizes and Besides fun, this hands on activity also improved their motor skills, sensory development and creativity. When we look beyond the art work we saw happier, stronger and more creative children smiling back at us.

"Learning is experience. Everything else is just information"

Fire is undoubtedly the most essential ingredient in modern day cooking. It helps in enhancing the taste of several dishes. Keeping this in mind the school arranged fireless cooking from Play Group to II.
