

Singhanians' Chronicle

From the editor's desk -

October was a month of festivals; the most awaited one being Diwali. It is also known as festival of lights. The houses look beautiful decorated with earthen lanterns. We see light emitted from them curbing darkness. When we look around us we also see the darkness of hate, lies, poverty, injustice, and casteism depriving human societies of peace, health, happiness and prosperity. It's time we try to put an end to this and illuminate people's life with knowledge and hope they see the evil standing in front of them. It's time we kill the "Ravan" inside our soul and make this earth a better place to live in.

I hope you had a great festival.

EDUCATIONAL TOURS

Educational tours are not meant for visiting purposes only, but they have a deep-down purpose to them. Students gain knowledge and upgrade their skills by using the concepts they newly learn. Educational tours play an important role in educating students in a practical and interesting manner. Students perceive better what they see with their eyes rather than what they read in books. So taking students for tours is giving them a chance to dig deeper and explore more. New vistas and arenas open for them and learning and understanding are not only easy but also long-lasting. Two educational tours were planned for students. One was to Jodhpur and Jaisalmer and another one to Udaipur and Mt. Abu. These tours turned out to be memorable for the students not only with reference to fun but also in terms of knowledge and experience they earned. Students came back with loads of memories to cherish forever.
